ABOUT THIS MEDICATION

What is this medication used for?

GEN-CLOZAPINE is only available through a special program.

Gen-Clozapine is an antipsychotic. It works by blocking chemicals in the brain that can cause some symptoms of mental illness. This medication is used to treat symptoms of schizophrenia. It is also used along with other treatments to help prevent the first episode of mental illness called a manic episode. It is also used for the treatment of bipolar disorder.

What should I watch when using this medication?

Gen-Clozapine may intensify the effect of alcohol, sleeping pills, tranquilizers, and anti-allergy medicines (such as antihistamines). Other medicines which may change the way GEN-CLOZAPINE works include the following:

- Antidepressants (such as amineptine and fluoxetine)
- Diuretics (such as ethacrynine and furosemide)
- Anticoagulants (such as warfarin and acenocoumarol)
- Nonsteroidal anti-inflammatory drugs (such as ibuprofen, aspirin, and naproxen)
- Methadone

Side Effects

Important: PLEASE READ

- Drug Information: The Canada Vigilance Program (www.canadavigilance.com) is a nationwide system where health products and health professionals report suspected adverse reactions associated with the use of health products to the Canadian Bureau of Statistics. Your personal information will only be used to ensure that you are properly monitored while using any brand of clozapine. Contact your doctor or pharmacist if you have any questions about the drug.

- www.mylan.ca: For more information about the product and how to report suspected adverse reactions, go to www.mylan.ca. You can report any suspected adverse reactions associated with the use of health products to the Canadian Bureau of Statistics. Your personal information will only be used to ensure that you are properly monitored while using any brand of clozapine. Contact your doctor or pharmacist if you have any questions about the drug.

- What is the medicinal ingredient?

- What dosage forms it comes in:

- What the medicinal ingredient is:

- What the non-medicinal ingredients are:

- What the medicinal ingredient is:

- What dose levels it comes in:

- What does GEN-CLOZAPINE contain?

- Drug Information: The Canada Vigilance Program (www.canadavigilance.com) is a nationwide system where health products and health professionals report suspected adverse reactions associated with the use of health products to the Canadian Bureau of Statistics. Your personal information will only be used to ensure that you are properly monitored while using any brand of clozapine. Contact your doctor or pharmacist if you have any questions about the drug.

- www.mylan.ca: For more information about the product and how to report suspected adverse reactions, go to www.mylan.ca. You can report any suspected adverse reactions associated with the use of health products to the Canadian Bureau of Statistics. Your personal information will only be used to ensure that you are properly monitored while using any brand of clozapine. Contact your doctor or pharmacist if you have any questions about the drug.

- What does GEN-CLOZAPINE contain?

- Drug Information: The Canada Vigilance Program (www.canadavigilance.com) is a nationwide system where health products and health professionals report suspected adverse reactions associated with the use of health products to the Canadian Bureau of Statistics. Your personal information will only be used to ensure that you are properly monitored while using any brand of clozapine. Contact your doctor or pharmacist if you have any questions about the drug.

- www.mylan.ca: For more information about the product and how to report suspected adverse reactions, go to www.mylan.ca. You can report any suspected adverse reactions associated with the use of health products to the Canadian Bureau of Statistics. Your personal information will only be used to ensure that you are properly monitored while using any brand of clozapine. Contact your doctor or pharmacist if you have any questions about the drug.

- Drug Information: The Canada Vigilance Program (www.canadavigilance.com) is a nationwide system where health products and health professionals report suspected adverse reactions associated with the use of health products to the Canadian Bureau of Statistics. Your personal information will only be used to ensure that you are properly monitored while using any brand of clozapine. Contact your doctor or pharmacist if you have any questions about the drug.

- www.mylan.ca: For more information about the product and how to report suspected adverse reactions, go to www.mylan.ca. You can report any suspected adverse reactions associated with the use of health products to the Canadian Bureau of Statistics. Your personal information will only be used to ensure that you are properly monitored while using any brand of clozapine. Contact your doctor or pharmacist if you have any questions about the drug.

- Drug Information: The Canada Vigilance Program (www.canadavigilance.com) is a nationwide system where health products and health professionals report suspected adverse reactions associated with the use of health products to the Canadian Bureau of Statistics. Your personal information will only be used to ensure that you are properly monitored while using any brand of clozapine. Contact your doctor or pharmacist if you have any questions about the drug.

- www.mylan.ca: For more information about the product and how to report suspected adverse reactions, go to www.mylan.ca. You can report any suspected adverse reactions associated with the use of health products to the Canadian Bureau of Statistics. Your personal information will only be used to ensure that you are properly monitored while using any brand of clozapine. Contact your doctor or pharmacist if you have any questions about the drug.

- Drug Information: The Canada Vigilance Program (www.canadavigilance.com) is a nationwide system where health products and health professionals report suspected adverse reactions associated with the use of health products to the Canadian Bureau of Statistics. Your personal information will only be used to ensure that you are properly monitored while using any brand of clozapine. Contact your doctor or pharmacist if you have any questions about the drug.

- www.mylan.ca: For more information about the product and how to report suspected adverse reactions, go to www.mylan.ca. You can report any suspected adverse reactions associated with the use of health products to the Canadian Bureau of Statistics. Your personal information will only be used to ensure that you are properly monitored while using any brand of clozapine. Contact your doctor or pharmacist if you have any questions about the drug.

- www.mylan.ca: For more information about the product and how to report suspected adverse reactions, go to www.mylan.ca. You can report any suspected adverse reactions associated with the use of health products to the Canadian Bureau of Statistics. Your personal information will only be used to ensure that you are properly monitored while using any brand of clozapine. Contact your doctor or pharmacist if you have any questions about the drug.